*Chore does not include throwing out spoiled food. Spoiled food is the responsibility of the member who owns it. Spoiled food left in refrigerator is a fineable offense and should be reported by other members using refrigerator or member with assigned chore.

Must be done before 8:00pm. Weekly chores are to be done on Sundays and must be completed no later than 30 minutes before the house meeting. All chores will be inspected by the house manager. A $10.00 fine will be issued for incomplete or ignored chores.

Chores will be rotated weekly.

Personal areas must be kept clean and neat at all times. Members' beds will be made when not in use. All laundry must be folded, hung, or in a laundry basket. Members are responsible for dusting their own personal area. Personal areas will be checked daily by the house manager. A $10.00 fine will be issued for personal areas not meeting standards.

Each individual is responsible for cleaning his own mess. All dishes, cooking utensils, supplies, etc. used by a member will be cleaned by that member. Any member leaving a mess will be fined $10.00.

Members are expected to hold each other accountable.

The house must be kept in a presentable state at all times.
